Systema Software Implements SIMS Claims at PG&E

Close Teamwork and Aggressive Project Management Contribute to Successful Implementation in Reduced Timeframe

Larkspur, CA – June 16, 2014 – Systema Software, a leading provider of claims administration software and services to the insurance industry, today announced it worked closely with Pacific Gas & Electric (PG&E) to successfully implement SIMS Claims[™]. PG&E is now using SIMS Claims to manage its workers’ compensation claims.

Jose Tribuzio, CEO of Systema Software, commented: “Implementing a new system can be challenging, resource intensive, and disruptive to day-to-day operations—causing projects to easily fall behind schedule. Systema’s agile implementation process enabled both of our teams to work together to expedite the delivery of SIMS and meet PG&E’s requirements, while minimizing the risk of project delays.”

Brian Mack, vice president of sales and marketing, added: “We were committed to providing PG&E with a superior implementation experience. They had strong project leaders in place. Working in concert, we ensured key milestones were met and the go-live occurred according to schedule. In the end, we established a highly effective relationship, enabling our teams to collaborate and communicate, and ultimately succeed in a compressed timeframe.”
